"We would like to personally invite everyone to attend the Queen City Car Show. We are excited to present a one day show where any car enthusiast can show off their ride. Please come to have fun and support the automotive hobby. This event is open to all makes, models, and years. Our goal is to make sure each and every one attending our show has a great time. Although there will be awards, our main goal is to provide car enthusiasts a chance to get together and share car stories. We are looking forward to a big show this year. We look forward to seeing you at our show."

"Thank you!"
